The Food Bank of South Jersey (FBSJ) is proud to once again participate in the Summer Meals program from June 12th, 2017 to September 3rd, 2017. It is anticipated that over 8,000 children will receive free meals in Summer Schools, Day Camps, Libraries, VBS, Churches, Hospitals, medical clinics, WIC offices, community non-profit organizations, and local parks.

TOP THREE REASONS TO BE APART OF THE FBSJ SUMMER MEALS PROGRAM

- The meals are FREE to a child 18 and younger!
- The meals are delivered daily!
- The meals are served fresh!

This program, under the sponsorship of the United States Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Services, provides all children up to 18 years of age with free meals to help fill the nutrition gap of the nearly 75% of our children who are eligible to receive free or reduced meals during the school year. The menu and program operations are under the auspices of the State of New Jersey, Department of Agriculture, Division of Food & Nutrition. The Food Bank of South Jersey Program is always seeking to add new sites and activities that will broaden community outreach and help draw children to our existing program.

In addition we are looking to recruit 100 new Summer Meals sites for 2017. If your organization would like to be part of the FBSJ summer meals program this summer, please complete and return the attached summer feeding site information sheet at your earliest convenience.

The completed site information sheet can be emailed or faxed to: Attention: Falynn Milligan Sr. Manager of Direct Services fmilligan@foodbanksj.org or 856-662-4884 ext.125.

The FBSJ Summer Meals program operates 7 days a week. We would be happy to support any weekend activities that your organization offers.
