ENSEMBLE BIO

The Princeton Girlchoir Ensemble is the most selective choir within the Princeton Girlchoir organization, and maintains the most active performing schedule. These independent and seasoned musicians demonstrate a high level of comprehensive skills in singing and sight-reading. Ensemble appears in professional venues and community collaborations throughout the season, featuring chamber music both from the traditional canon and from contemporary composers, as well as music drawn from a wide range of styles and world cultures. Recent performances include collaborations with the New Jersey Capital Philharmonic and New York Choral Society at Carnegie Hall, the New Jersey and Pennsylvania premieres, as well as the professional recording of Steven Sametz's acclaimed A Child's Requiem, and an invited appearance at the Guild for Early Music Festival.
