9:45 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Hosted by the
Mt. Zion United Methodist Church
134 S. White Horse Pike, Lawnside, NJ

Our Keynote Speaker

A son of a Methodist pastor and District Superintendent, Bishop S. Lyght grew up within the bounds of the Delaware Conference. Ordained as a Deacon and as an Elder by the Peninsula-Delaware Conference, he also served as a pastor in both the Southern New Jersey and Northern New Jersey Conferences, and as District Superintendent of the Raritan District in the Northern New Jersey Conference, from where he was nominated for the episcopal office. Elected as a bishop by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 1996, he served as resident bishop of the New York and West Virginia Episcopal Areas before returning to New Jersey in retirement. Bishop Lyght is the co-author of three books: Many Faces of the Church, The Confessions of Three Ebony Bishops, and Our Father. His latest publication is Have You Faith in Christ? He and his wife, Eleanor Bell Lyght, have two sons and four grandchildren.
