Enjoy Best of Broadway. Help the homebound.

Event to benefit Interfaith Caregivers of Greater Mercer County.

Interfaith Caregivers of Greater Mercer County invites the community for an evening of dinner and live music at 6 PM on August 11 at Cedar Gardens Banquet in Hamilton. The event will raise funds to provide care to homebound seniors and adults with disabilities in our community.

Joanna Latini, soprano and Michael Maliakel, baritone will sing classics from the great American songbook, ranging from Anything Goes to Wicked. Tickets are $40 per person and sponsorships are available. Call 609-393-9922 for tickets or more information.

For more information about the event and sponsorships, go to icgmc.org. Cedar Gardens Banquet is located at 661 US Highway 33 in Hamilton, NJ.

Interfaith Caregivers of Greater Mercer County (ICGMC) is a non-profit organization based in Hamilton NJ. Working with partner congregations, ICGMC recruits, trains and manages volunteer caregivers who help with everyday tasks, including transportation to medical appointments, assisting with grocery shopping and errands, and providing respite care.

ICGMC relies on dedicated volunteers to deliver services and on charitable support from greater Mercer County. To request services, volunteer or support ICGMC, go to icgmc.org or call 609-393-9922.

About the Artists

Joanna Latini has performed with Wolf Trap Opera, Bach Choir of Pittsburgh, Miami Summer Music Festival, and was a semi-finalist in the national Classical Singer Vocal Competition.

Michael Maliakel, a professional vocalist based in New York City, has won top awards, including the 2014 National Music Theater Competition, and 2015 Lotte Lenya Competition.

Promoting the independence, dignity and wellness of homebound elderly and people with disabilities by matching them with supportive and caring volunteers who assist with the tasks of everyday life.
