

FALL FORUM OF UMC AT DEMAREST
EVERYDAY CULTURAL COMPETENCE
BRIDGING THE CULTUREAL DIVIDE
THROUGH AUTHENTIC CONVERSATION

Rev. Vanessa Wilson

The Reverend Vanessa M. Wilson serves as the Senior Pastor of Magnolia Road United Methodist Church in Pemberton, N.J., a cross-racial and cross-cultural appointment. She is the Chairperson of the United Methodist Greater New Jersey Commission on Religion and Race. A second career pastor, she has extensive leadership experience in higher education, nonprofit and faith-based organizations and provides consulting, training, facilitating and coaching in Strategic Planning, Nonprofit/Faith-based Organization Management, Human Resources and Cultural Competence. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Planning and Community Development from Rutgers University and a Juris Doctorate from Rutgers University Law School. Additionally, she has studied Business Administration at the graduate level and has a Certificate in Global Business Practices. She is currently pursuing a Masters in Divinity at Drew University Theological School.

October 9, 2016

5:00pm for Light Supper/6:15pm for Presentation

United Methodist Church at Demarest
109 Hardenburgh Ave., Demarest, NJ 07627
Tel. 201-768-4355

<https://www.facebook.com/UMCDemarest/>